Friesian Horse Club of Southern California

For the past several years, the FHCSC has participated in an exhibit displaying our FHANA Friesians in the Centennial Barn Animal Exhibit area of the Orange County Fair. In the beginning, we shared this locale with the Budweiser Clydesdales, and were glad to have their company to help us gain attention and popularity with the Fair guests. In the last few years the Clydesdales have moved on, and we have been holding our own as the primary equine exhibit. We are one of the few animal exhibits which offers hands-on experience with any type of livestock, and certainly none are as beautiful and revered as our precious Black Pearls. Repeat guests come back to visit as well as many, many new faces whose eyes are filled with wonder and pleasure at this up close and personal experience with the nonpareil Friesian breed.

Our fair exhibit was successful once again, and once again there were some last minute changes. This year, Sandra Martin filled in with 3 horses on Tuesday and 2 horses on Wednesday, as the Whiteley's were unable to attend last minute. We certainly thank Sandra for bringing her mares Gretchen (Meinse 439 x Lukas 324 x Oepke 266), Renee (Tsjerk 328 x Abe 346 x Tsjomme 329) and the lovely show stealer, Mahina (B book II) Otto P (Doaitsen 420) x Sibald 380 x Barteld 292)

On Friday, Devon Wyman and Bonnie Minder exhibited Carol Nieblas's 2 geldings, Touche (Otte 375 x Wander 352 x Diedert 288) and Valiant Prince (Fridse 423 x Wander 352 x Diedert 288). Our newest club member family, Cherie Weatherall and Michael Mitchell stepped right up and brought their model mare, Wies Geertje Z (Norbert 444 x Tsjalke 397 x Jasper 366) and her 4 month old filly, Tirzah Z de Camelot Noir (Tymen 503 x Norbert 444 x Tsjalke 397). Always a rare and special treat to see and enjoy, the Fair guests were delighted with our baby Black Pearl and asked many questions, enjoying the opportunity to watch her, and also to interact with the older horses.

This year, our exhibit only lasted 3 days. The Fair Staff decided to bring back the vaulting team on the 4th and 5th days in which we normally also exhibited. When all was said and done, the Staff decided that we were the best choice for those two weekend days after all, and we have a "tentative" invitation to return next year for a 5-day exhibit once again. Not only that, but our Event Coordinator, Tim Isbell has received a “tentative” invitation to the Los Angeles County Fair next year from the Staff member heading up both Fair Events. Tim has been coordinating the Orange County Fair exhibit for several years, and his professional relationship building and expertise in these events as well as with our Keuring, along with our lovely Black Pearls have no doubt won us this new venue opportunity. Many thanks to Tim and to those club members who tirelessly shared and exhibited the horses during long hours with so many guests.
