Chapter News

To be included in the Chapter news, all Chapter submissions must be received by the FHANA office by the 25th of each month. Submissions can be sent to fhana@fhana.com

It was a fun and exciting time for the newly approved North American Spanish Friesian Horse Association who celebrated their new chapter forming and being able to enjoy the years of working for their members coming together to bring this first ever group for diversity. They were mentored by Lone Star Friesian Horse Club of Texas who help them every step of the way. The two chapters have enjoyed projects, events together and also showing everyone their love of the breed.

Mark McGowan - President and Leslie Losey - Vice President both from Lone Star Board of Directors presented a commemorative award for the group and welcomed Mario Casarez - President, Juan Carlos Cantu - Vice President/Treasurer, Josh Perez - Marketing/Promotion, Johnny Morales - Secretary, Juan DePena - Membership/Registration, and Beverly McGowan FHANA advisor/representative. The group had a great dinner and celebration with everyone getting champagne, Both Chapters look forward to a great year together.
